“ I don't know where to begin. Ms. Ann was one beautiful soul. When I was young I was good friends with her daughter Arnetha. I stayed plenty of nights and days at their home in Titustown. Ms Ann treated me as daughter. Time separated us but everytime I would see Ms. Ann it was always love. Lol Foodlion seemed to be a meet spot and we would talk at least 30mins. I'll never forget Ms. Ann. Thank you for taking care of my mom when she was dying and the comfort you showed me.

“ Ann was a very giving n loving person, not sure if everyone knew this but she had a great sense of humor...every morning she would send me funny videos to cheer me up...I just want the family know that Ann was believer and inspite of us missing her, and the pain we feel, she resting in the bosom of our Father GOD, Ward family and friends just know that you are in my prayers now n have been all along..

Love, Yvette
