

Ms. Linda Diane Bishop

October 17, 1947 - September 28, 2023

Linda Bishop, age 75, loving mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, passed away peacefully surrounded by her loving family, after a lengthy illness. Linda was born October 17, 1947, in Norfolk, VA. to Ernest and Gladys Bishop. Linda was a graduate of the Booker T. Washington High School Class of 1965, She was employed at the Christian Broadcasting Network (CBN) for many years and was a retiree from the City of Norfolk. Linda could always be found catching a bus to work, the mall and even Williamsburg. Linda loved her daughter and grandchildren immensely. She was very thoughtful and cared deeply about people. Linda was a very kind, giving, and caring person who never met a stranger, a very quiet, but strong woman.

Linda is preceded in death by her parents Ernest and Gladys Bishop, Aunt Vernetta L. Lee, Uncle John, and Aunt Nancy P. Lee.

Linda is survived by her daughter Anita K. Bishop, granddaughters Sequoia M. and Ashley R. Bishop, grandson Keyshawn L. Brown, great granddaughter Paris Deloatch and great-grandson Kendrick Bishop. She is also survived by a special cousin Marsha Jones and host of relatives and friends.

“ If you were looking for Linda after 10 o'clock on Sundays, she could be found on the last pew in the sanctuary. We sat side by side for many years, exchanging candy and gum. When her health no longer allowed her to come to church, I moved my seat. I will miss her but I know she will be united with her precious mom(my Mema), dad, and precious aunt.

“ Linda and I grew up together. We went to the same schools together, even walking the tracks to and from junior high and high school. Linda was Special.
