Troy Malcolm Jones was born on December 30, 1945, in Jackson, Mississippi, to the late Susie Mae Louie/Jones. He was also predeceased by his sister La Sandra Johnson. Troy departed this life on Tuesday March 4, 2025.

Troy graduated from Chadsey High School in Detroit, Michigan and from there he enlisted into the United States Navy serving over 20 years. He went through the ranks from boot, engine man, chief petty officer, diving officer, warrant officer.

In January 1967 he fell for this girl named Edna. That summer he proposed to her, and she said yes! They were married on Sweetest Day October 21, 1967. Together they have born one son, Malcolm Elandro Jones.

A man of integrity leaves a legacy for his children and his grands. His example of righteousness impacts future generations, providing a spiritual foundation for his descendants to build upon. It was God who directed Deacon Troy's spiritual path.

He is survived by his spouse Edna Jones, Son Malcolm (wife Renee), 4 Granddaughters – Ciane`, Shariel, Shantel and LaKita, 5 Grandson, Gary, Brandon, Darrell, Dwayne and C.J. and a host of great grands, nieces, and nephews.

We honor such a man today. Troy Jones a man of great integrity and wisdom. First a son to his mother, a brother to his sister, a husband to his wife, a father, dad, papa, uncle, and a friend. A role model, who stood by his word. A champion of justice shown by his courage in times of distress.

Troy has always been a pillar, a strong tower to his family. A jack of all trades.

Ask papa – he knows.

Troy, Dad, Papa, Mr. Jones, you will be missed beyond measure!
